Exhibitor Statements

"The show has been very busy through the three days of the exhibition. We are very happy to be here this year and over the previous five editions of the show. We are surely going to be back for the exhibition next year. We met visitors from across different parts of the MENA region. It is great to see the exhibition growing in size, quality and number of exhibitors."

Farook A. Rahimtullah

Owner & President

Farook International Stationery

"The Paperworld Middle East exhibition is a great place for companies in the stationery industry to network with each other and to meet potential trade visitors and display their products to a wide range of cosmopolitan visitors and customers."

George Kavouras

Commercial Director

PAXOS S.A.

"This is our second year here at Paperworld Middle East, we are happy to be here again and to display our innovative products to visitors and potential customers. It has been a great and busy three-day event for us and we look forward to being here next year."
